Newsletter April — May 2019

Let love be genuine; hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good; love one another with mutual affection; outdo one another in showing honour... Bless those who persecute you; bless and do not curse them. Rejoice with those who rejoice, weep with those who weep. Live in harmony with one another; do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly; do not claim to be wiser than you are. Do not repay anyone evil for evil... Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Romans 12.9-21

Most people are born with an innate sense of fairness. We begin our lives wanting the world to be a better place. In too many cases, selfishness, apathy and cynicism dull this natural sense of justice. But Jesus stirs us to nurture this hunger and thirst for what is right and to set it as the compass for our daily lives. But how? The world around us mostly lives a different way. We must learn to swim against the tide. Paul recognizes that the best and only way to do that is in community. We need each other. We learn and practice virtue in the life of the Church. Together we seek to grow more like Christ so that we can live as Christ's body in the world, as salt and light. Together we are called not to be overcome by evil, but to overcome evil with good.

Pray:

Teach us, good Lord, to serve you as you deserve;
to give and not to count the cost;
to fight and not to heed the wounds;
to toil and not to seek for rest;
to labour and not to seek for any reward,
save that of knowing that we do your will.

Ignatius of Loyola (1556)

Reflections by Bishop Oxford Rt. Rev. Steven Croft
